

ACAM Fellowship Pathway II: ACAM Fellowship by Academic Pathway

Eligibility for ACAM Fellowship by Academic Pathway

To be eligible for enrolment within ACAM Fellowship by Academic Pathway, the candidate must meet the following criteria:

Practical Experience:

- Have a minimum of three years cosmetic/aesthetic medicine experience (or its part-time equivalent pro-rata);
- At least one year of which aesthetic medicine experience gained within Australia;
- Be inactive in aesthetic medicine within Australia.

ACAM membership requirements

- Be a current financial Member of ACAM before enrolment, for the duration and after ACAM Fellowship by Academic Pathway and up until the award of Fellowship. To join ACAM click here;
- Complete the academic curriculum set for this pathway, meeting the minimum pass mark for each section and uploading completion documentation as evidence of completion;
- Have completed an introductory BLS/ALS course, valid within the 36 months of the opening date of enrolments, and have a valid certificate at the time of completion of the pathway;
- Demonstrated adequate medical indemnity insurance for the procedures, they are undertaking;
- They have demonstrated continuing education in aesthetic medicine.

Medical Board requirements

- Have current medical registration with MBA with good standing.

Completion of Procedural Logbook

- Completing Procedural Logbook as per the guidelines and submitted via the member's portal for review by ACAM's Censor in Chief.

And

- Successful completion of Diploma of Aesthetic Medicine; Queen Mary University of London^{#^}:
<https://www.qmul.ac.uk/postgraduate/taught/coursefinder/courses/aesthetic-medicine-online-msc/>

Note fees are directly payable to the Queen Mary University of London, and those completing this course of study will be required to meet the standards as set out by QMUL. ACAM does not influence their marking system or academic curriculum.

^Candidates may wish to extend their studies with QMUL and complete the Masters of Aesthetic Medicine; ACAM will accept the diploma level of qualification to complete this fellowship program.

And

Other criteria to be met

- Successful completion of a VIVA Examination;
- Completion of a BLS/ALS course (and be current after the pathway)*;
- Completion of a COVID-19 Infection control course (no charge)*;¹
- Completion of an infection control course (no charge)*;²
- Completion of ACAM Laser User- Core of Knowledge- Laser Physics and Safety Course during the duration of pathway*;
- Two medical references.

*These activities attract accredited CPD points with ACAM, RACGP and ACCRRM.

Practice Visit

- Where practical, a practice visit will be conducted for each candidate assessing their work (environmental) setting, including but not limited to: assessment/storage of scheduled medications, fridge monitoring protocols, resuscitation equipment and infection control protocols.

Rules and regulations

- Consult the Rules and Regulations for further information.

Comparison Chart

- Unsure which program is for you? Consult our comparison chart.

For further information concerning the membership enrolment process, please contact Ms Purich secretary@acam.org.au

¹ <https://www.health.gov.au/resources/apps-and-tools/covid-19-infection-control-training>

² <https://www.safetyandquality.gov.au/our-work/infection-prevention-and-control/infection-prevention-and-control-elearning-modules>